Chicken and Biscuits

Place the chicken breast on the bottom of a 5 or 6-quart crock pot. Top with soup, butter, vegetables, and onion.

Pour the chicken broth over the soup mixture. The chicken should be covered; if not, add more broth.

Place the cover on the crock pot and turn on high. Cook on high for 5 to 6 hours.

Approximately 1 hour before serving, remove the cover and pull the chicken apart in small pieces or shred.

Tear the refrigerator biscuit dough into pieces and place it on top of the chicken mixture in the crock pot.

Replace the cover and cook another hour or until the biscuits are done all the way through.

To serve, spoon the chicken and biscuits onto plates directly from the crock pot.
